

Seeking Safety: A Study with Domestic Violence Service Providers about Seattle's Paid Sick and Safe Time Ordinance

July 10, 2013

Jennifer Morton, MSW/MPH

PRESENTATION OUTLINE

- Background
- Rationale for current study
- Methods
- Results
- Recommendations
- Conclusions

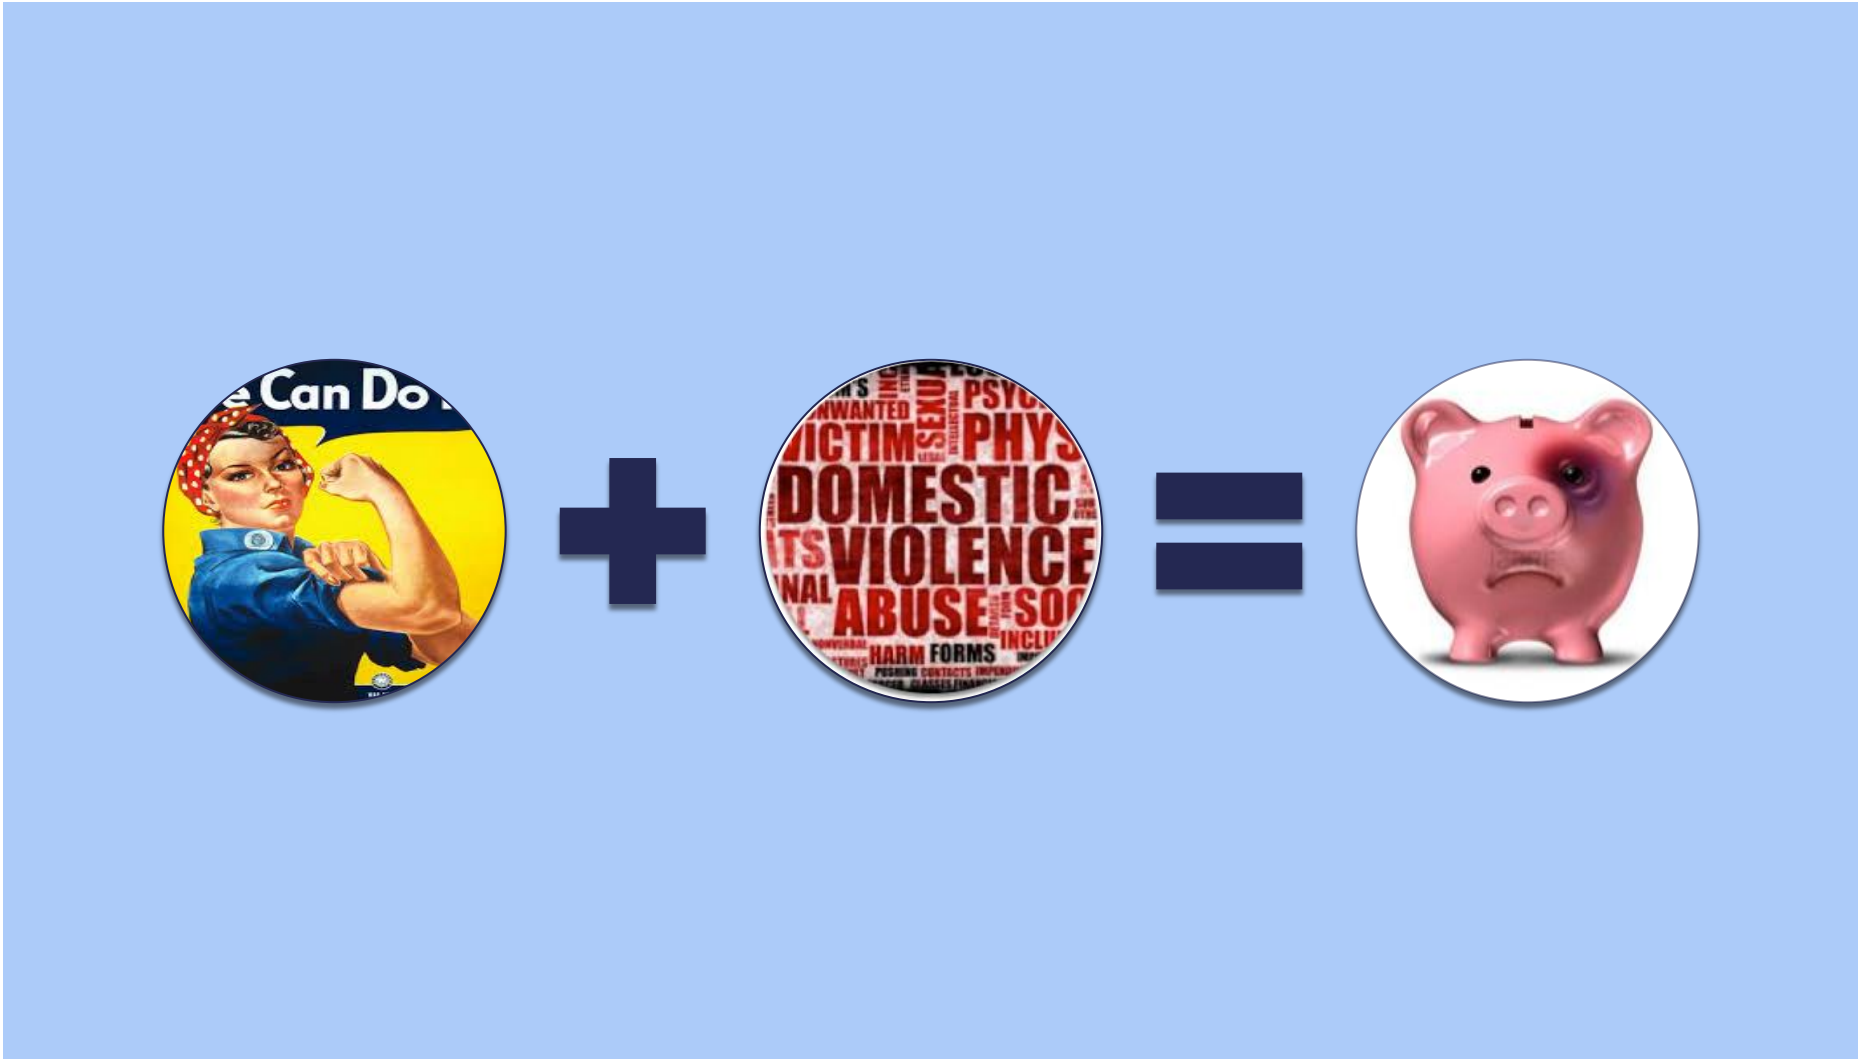

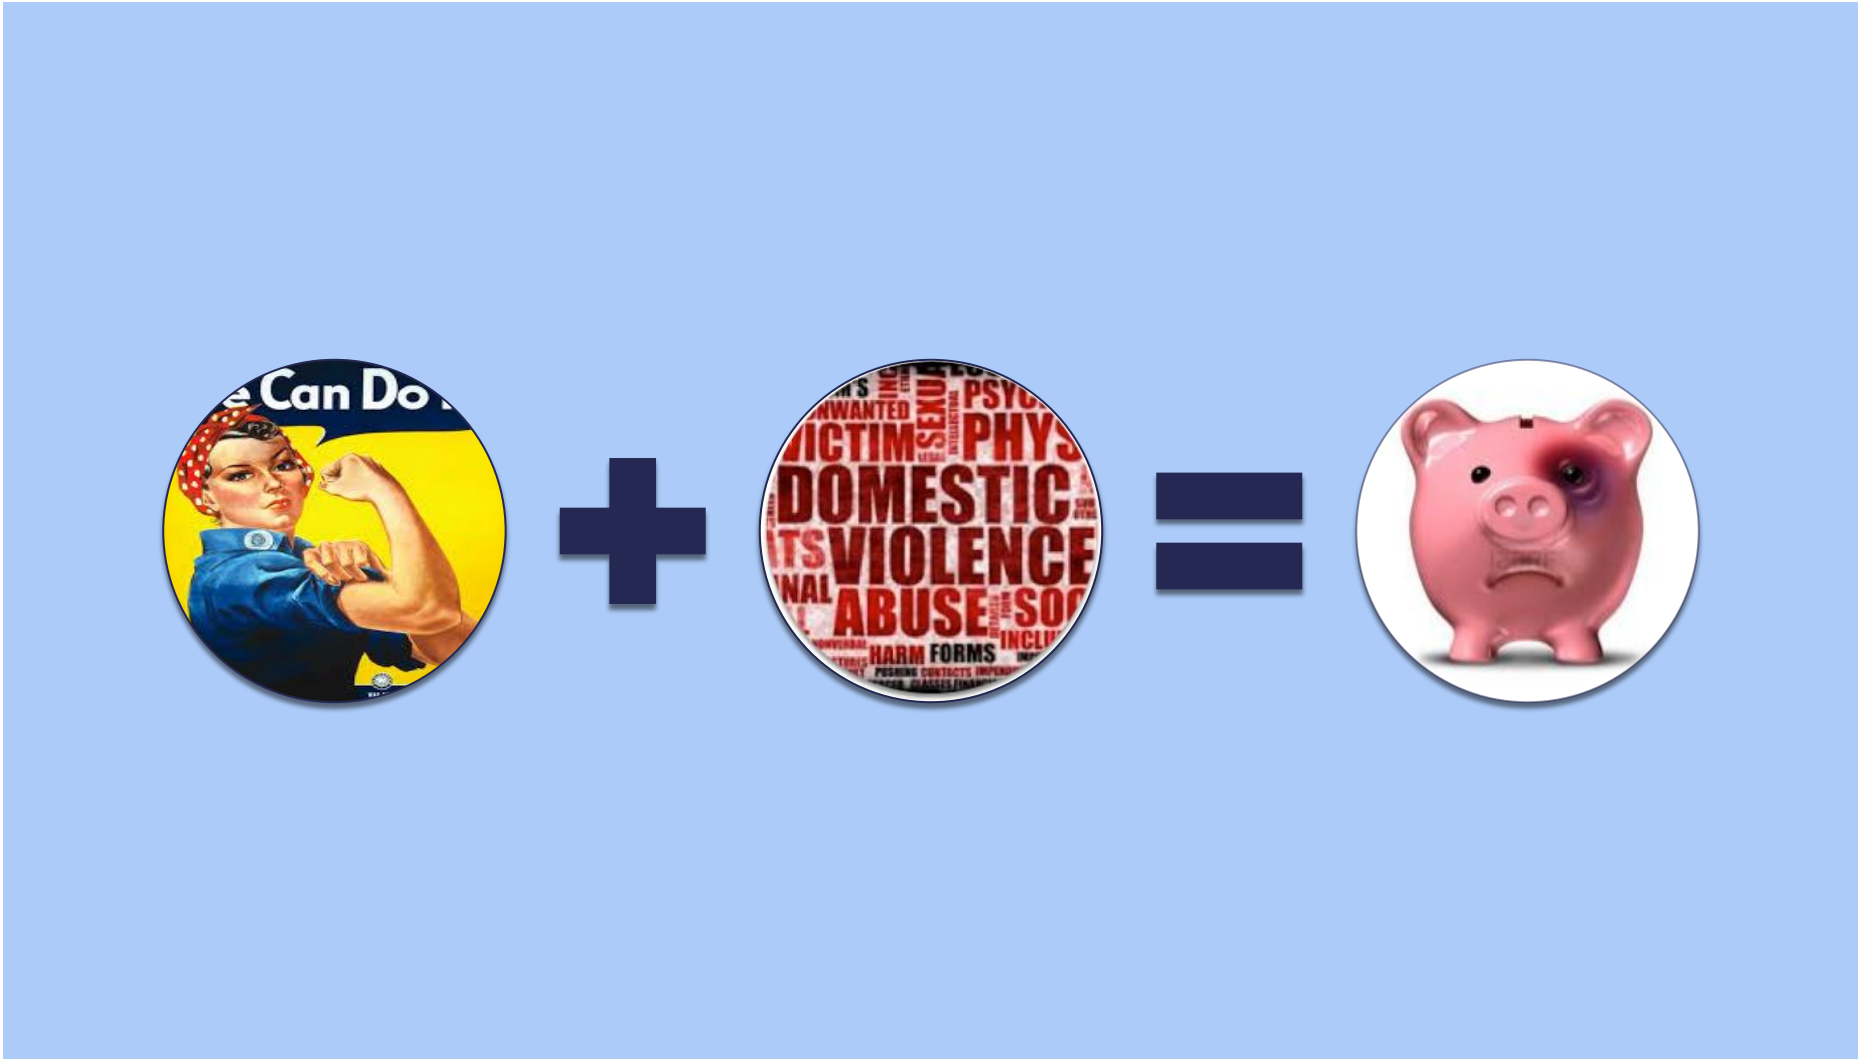

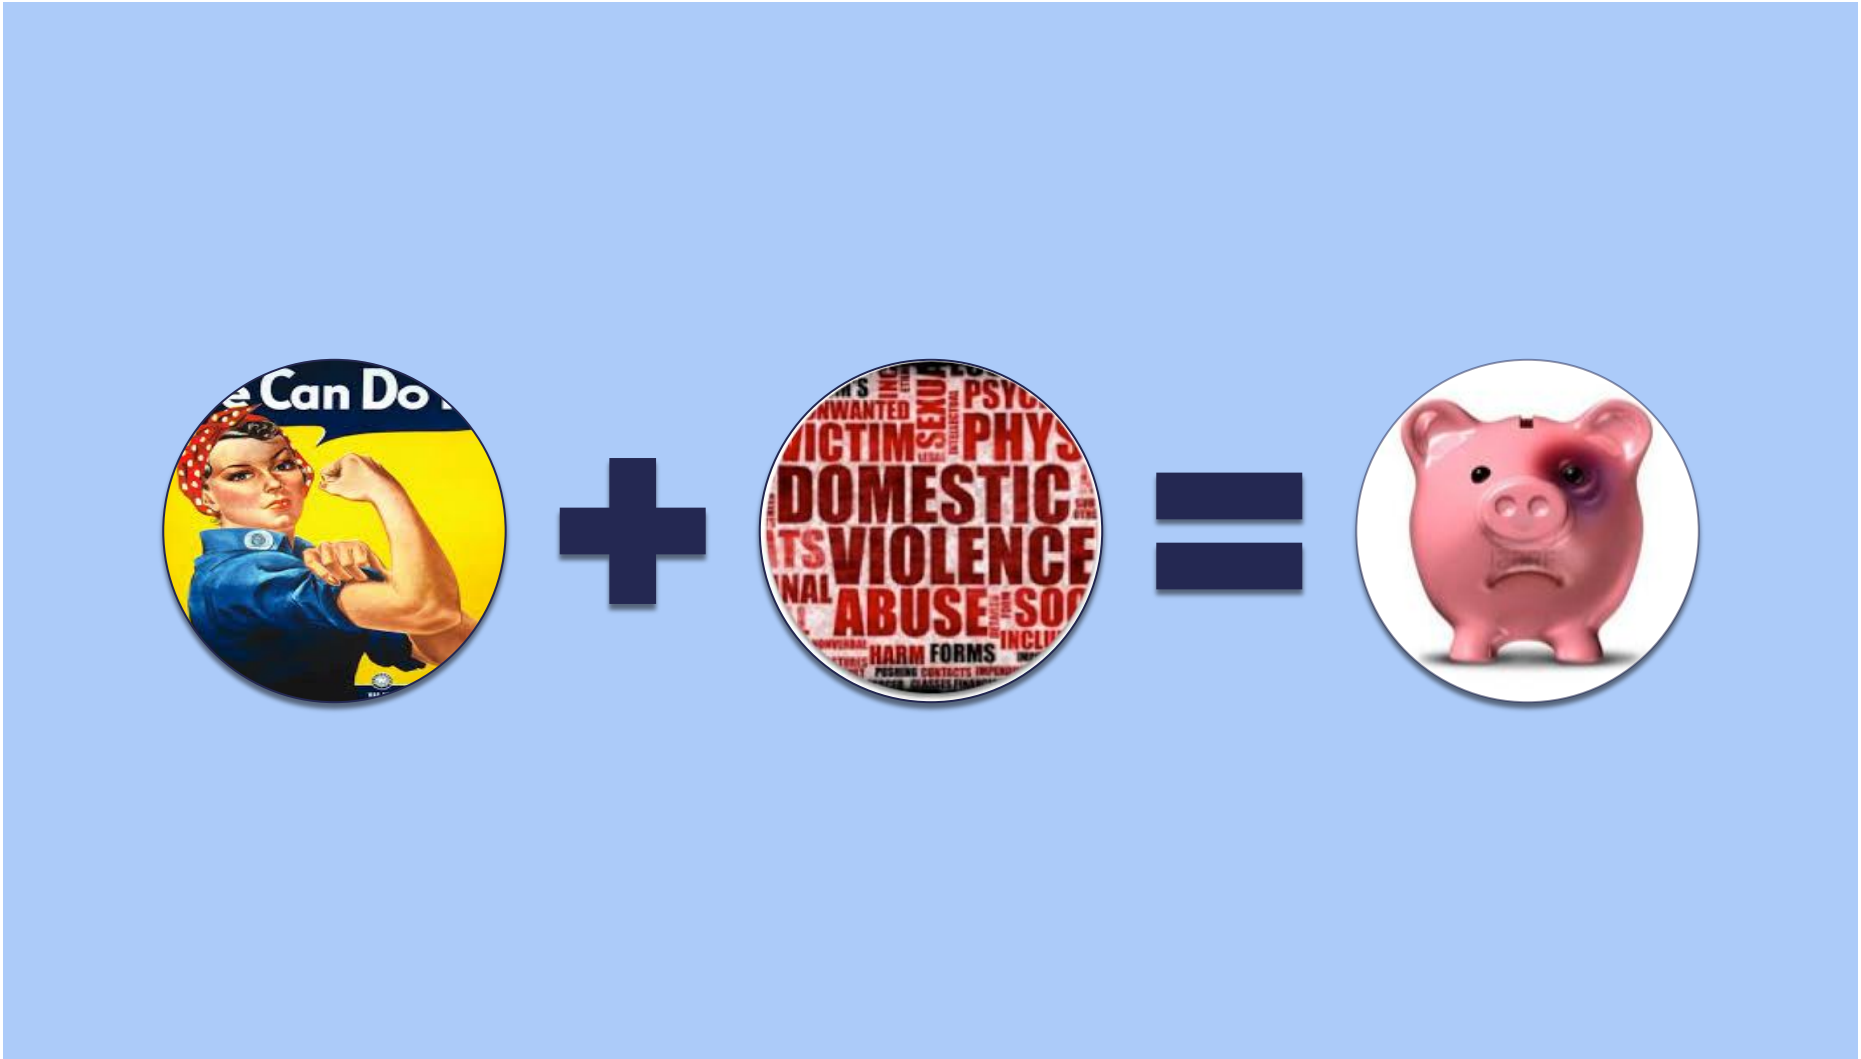

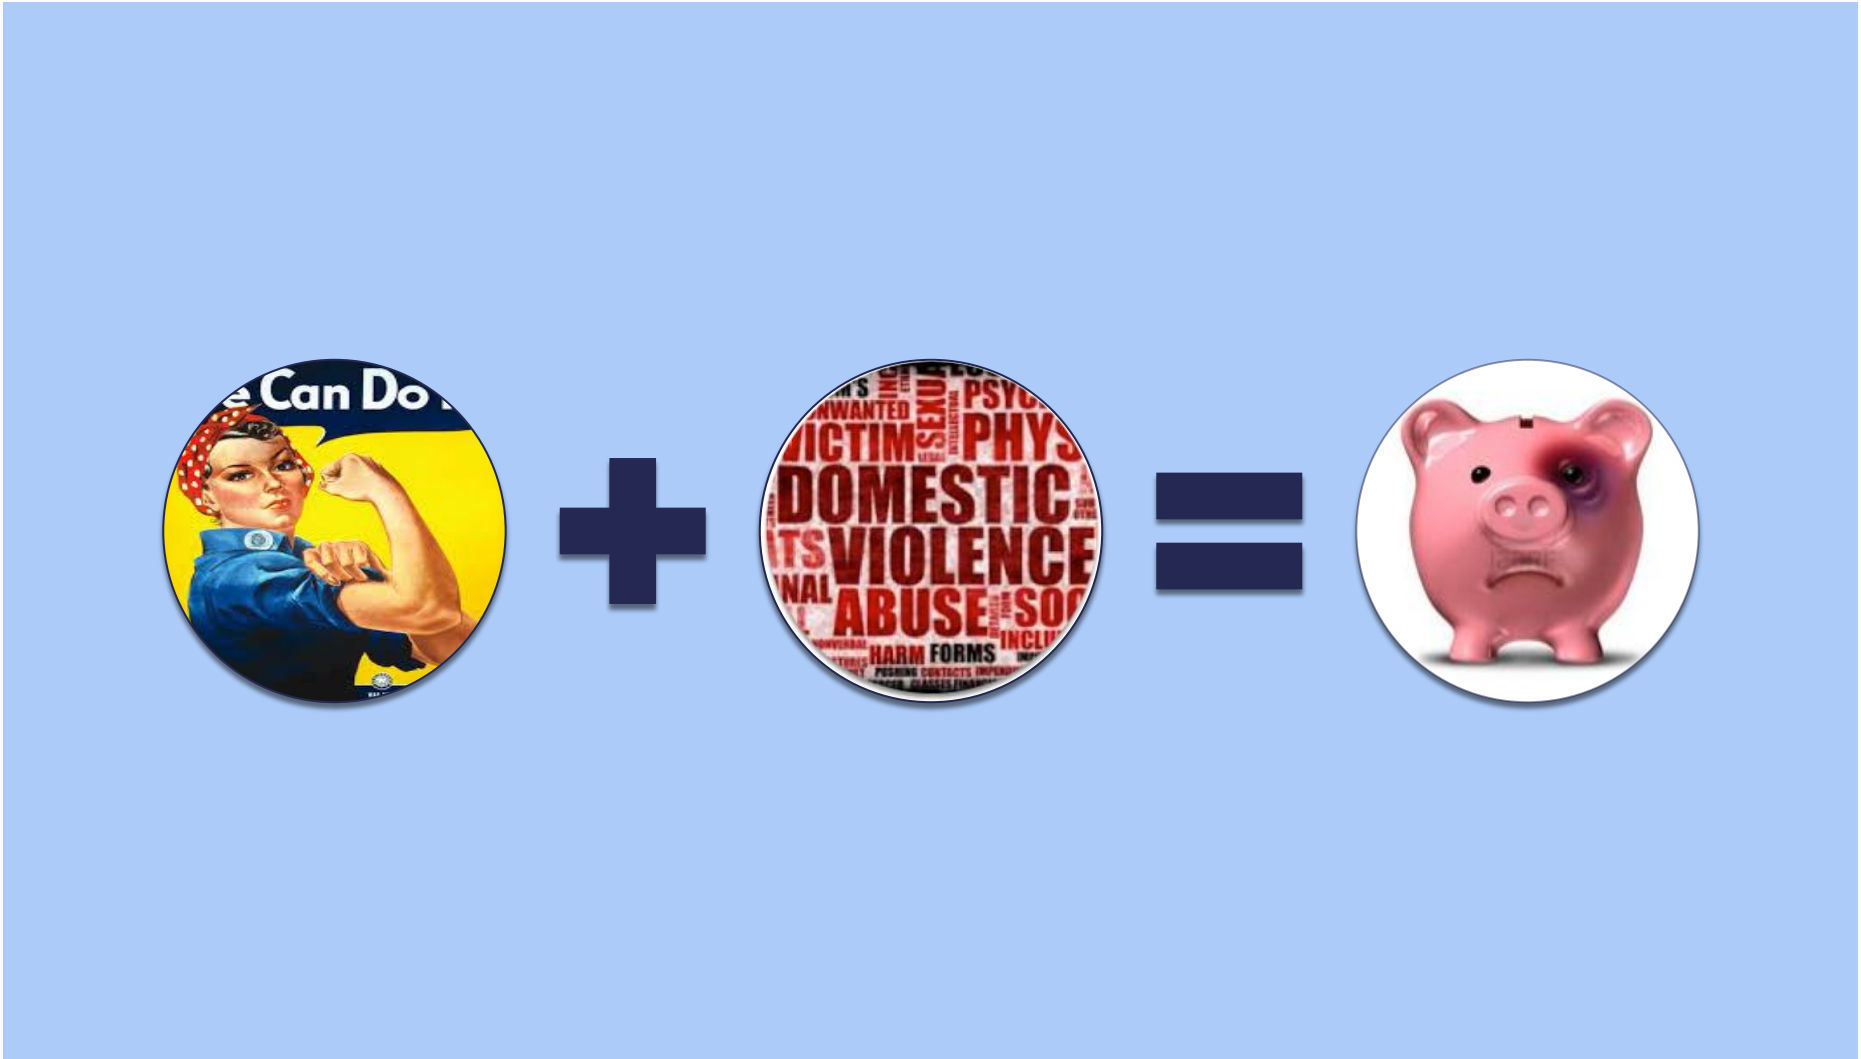

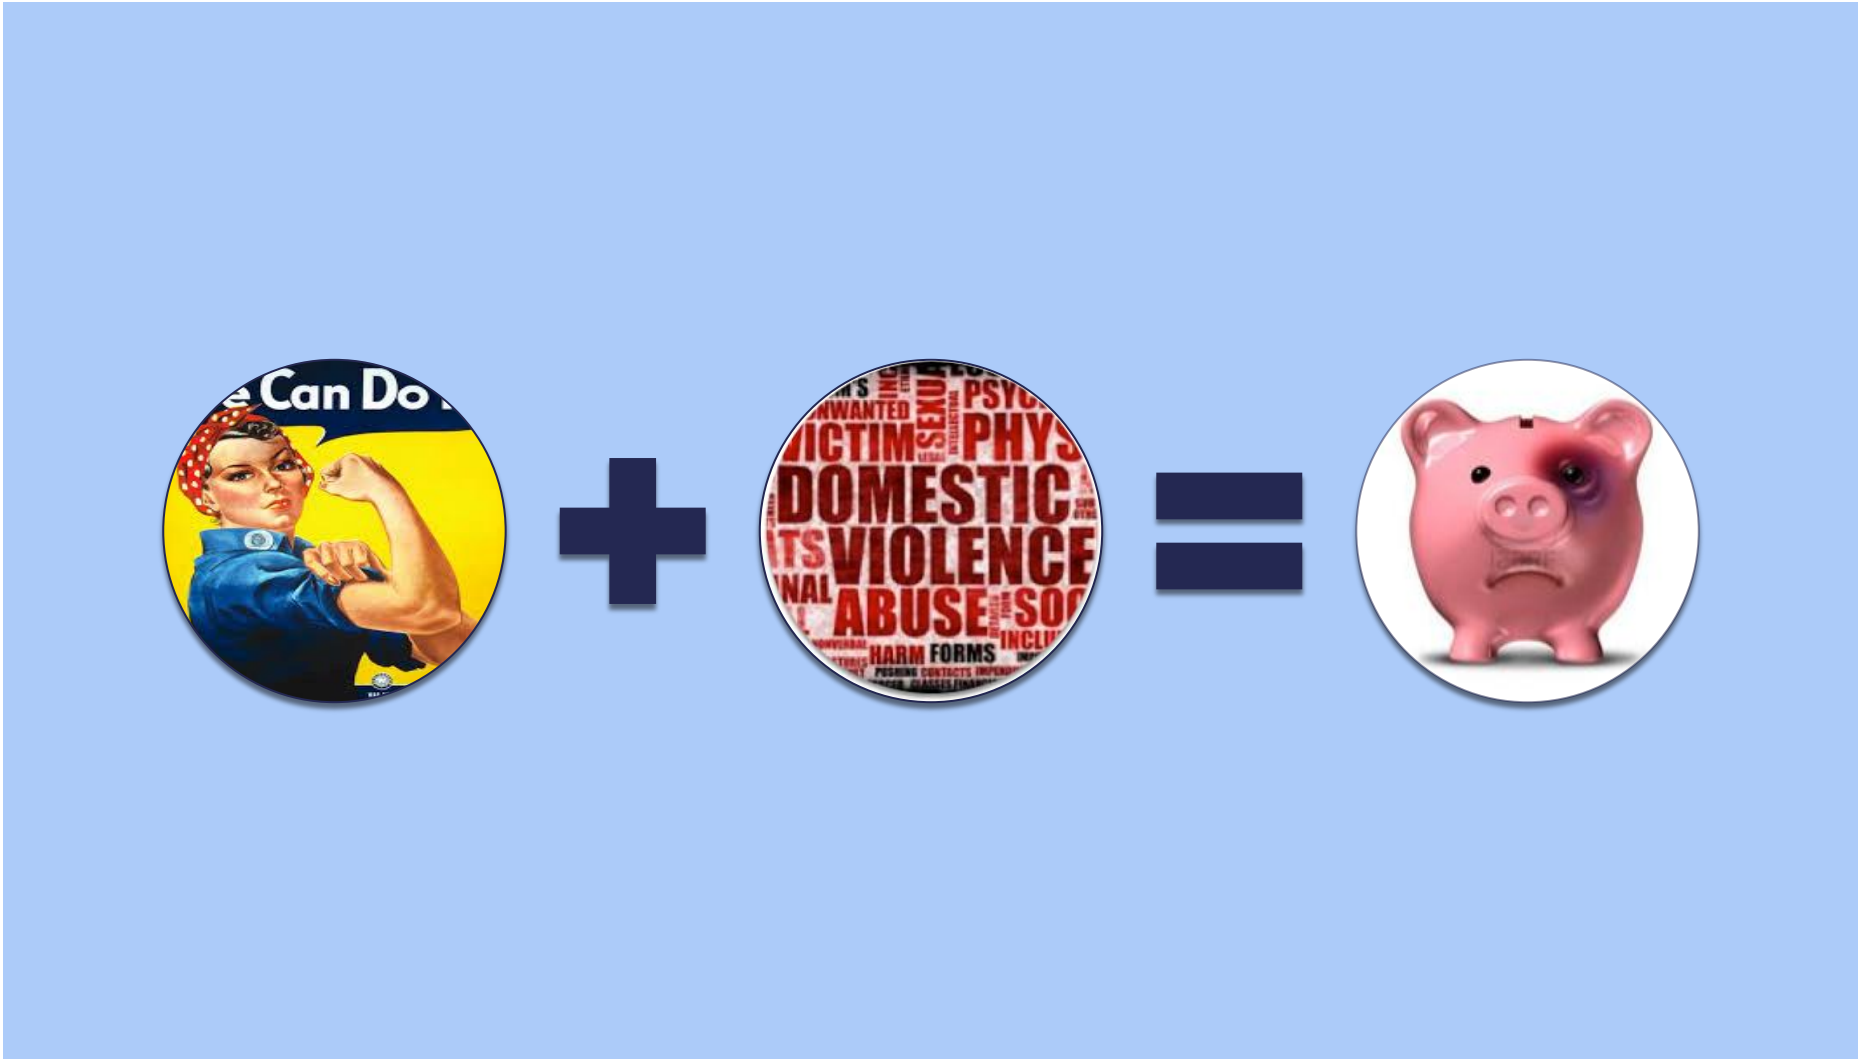

BACKGROUND

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE STATISTICS

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE REDUCES ECONOMIC SECURITY

REPERCUSSIONS ON EMPLOYMENT

RATIONALE FOR STUDY

RATIONALE FOR STUDY

RESEARCH AIMS

1. Provide a general context of how DV affects Seattle survivors;
2. Measure DV service providers' knowledge of and about the PSSTO;
3. Discover if DV service providers have discussed the PSSTO with their clients; and
4. Explore the ways in which DV service providers anticipate the PSSTO will affect survivors.

METHODS

METHODS

Participants

Procedures

Analysis

RESULTS

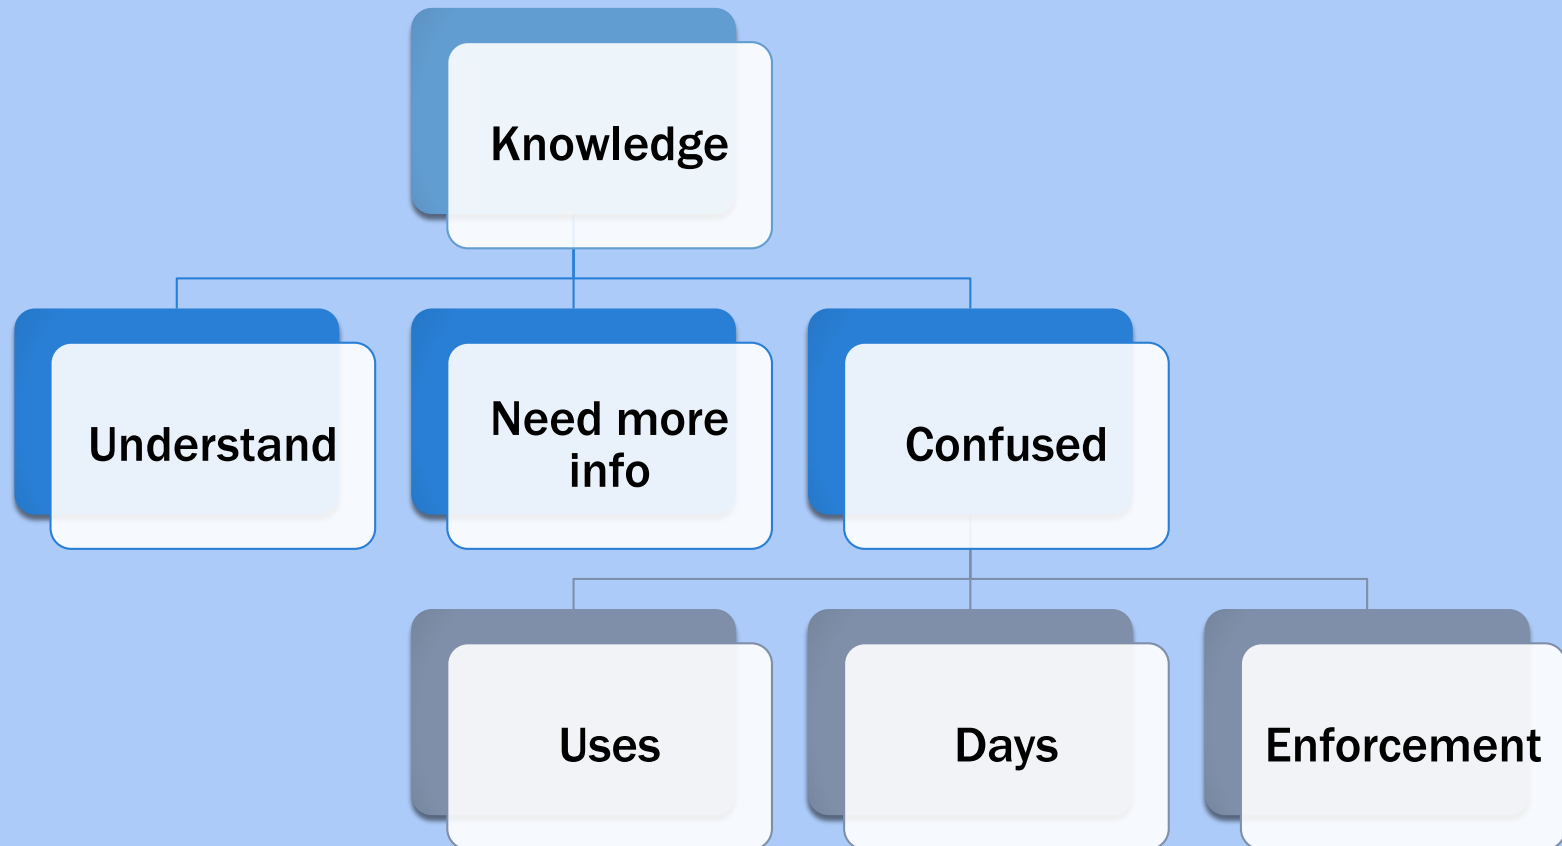

RESPONDENT DEMOGRAPHICS

Participant	Years working in Domestic Violence	Years with Current Organization	Average clients served per week	Educational preparation for current job
1	15	15	20	MSW
2	10	2	50	BA, Training/certification
3	3	1	4	BSW, Training/certification
4	20	7	28	BA, Training/certification
5	17	13	9	Training/certification
6	17	8	30	Training/certification
7	25	10	3	Training/certification
8	24	24	100	Training/certification

RESULTS: SURVIVOR NEEDS

RESULTS: PROVIDER KNOWLEDGE

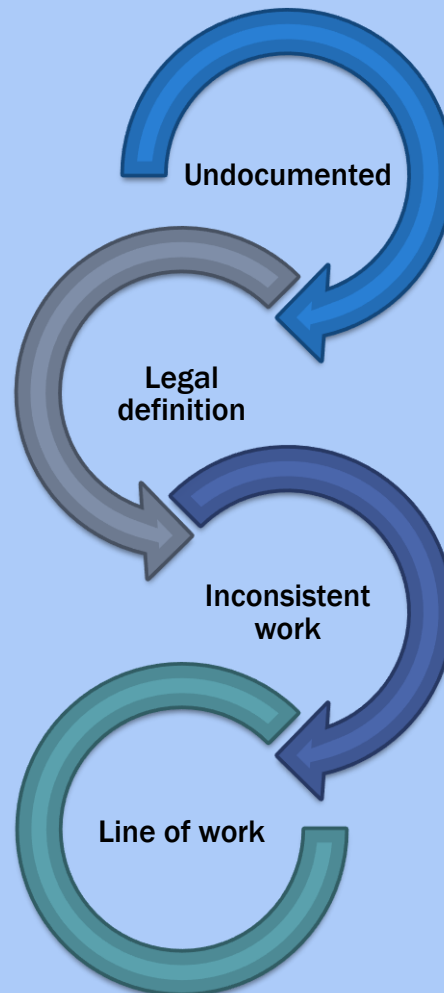

RESULTS: CLIENT UTILIZATION

RESULTS: BENEFITS OF PSSTO

RESULTS: CHALLENGES & INCLUSION

RESULTS: CHALLENGES

You're Fired!

RECOMMENDATIONS

RECOMMENDATION 1

Use the PSSTO as an educational tool.

RECOMMENDATION 2

Clarify the definition of domestic violence.

RECOMMENDATION 3

Assess the effectiveness of or alternatives to complaint-based systems.

CONCLUSIONS

Conclusion

CONCLUSION

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Jennie Romich

Peter House

Traci Underwood, Merrill Cousin, & Taryn
Lindhorst

Amy Hagopian, Ian Painter, & COPHP e11

Mary Denzel, Karina Bull, Mike Chin &
Marilyn Watkins

DV service providers

Matt & the rest of my support system